

Sliding Down the Plane

Benjamin Hettinga & Angela Leach

April 27 – May 18, 2013

Opening: Saturday April 27, 2013

Hours: Saturdays only: 1 to 5pm or by appointment

Sliding Down the Plane features Angela Leach from Scarborough and Benjamin Hettinga from Saskatoon. Both artists share an interest in shape and pattern to articulate space. Hettinga uses alternating layers of precisely cut geometric configurations that are culturally informed or come from the natural world. Leach uses contrasting colors and shaped painting supports in order to strengthen the illusion of dimensional space within her painted surfaces.

Benjamin Hettinga graduated from the University of Saskatchewan with a BFA in 2008 and lives and works in Saskatoon. His most recent show was Good Vibrations with Stacia Verigin in Artists by Artists at the Mendel Art Gallery. Hettinga also does graphic design work and draws a comic called Purrfect Strangers.

Angela Leach studied painting at the Ontario College of Art and Design. Since 1992, Leach has exhibited her work across Canada and the US including solo shows at Doris McCarthy Gallery (Toronto), Owens Art Gallery (Sackville), Southern Alberta Art Gallery (Lethbridge) and in group exhibitions at the Albright-Knox Gallery (Buffalo), the Art Gallery of Ontario (Toronto) and the Edmonton Art Gallery. She currently lives and works in Scarborough, Ontario.

Sliding Down the Plane

List of Works

Benjamin Hettinga

2. Warm Floater

Cut paper
21" x28"
2011

3. Regenesis

Airbrush on cut paper
10" x10"
2011

5. Sacred Whisper

Silkscreen on cut paper
21" x21"
2010

Angela Leach

1. AR-Shape #15

Acrylic on board
25 3/4" x 30 1/4" x 2 1/8"
2013

4. AR-Shape #16

Acrylic on board
37" x 24 1/4" x 2 1/8"
2013

6. AR-13 Small #2

Acrylic on canvas
11" x 8 1/2"
2013

7. AR-13 Small #1

Acrylic on canvas
11" x 8 1/2"
2013

8. AR-13 Small #3

Acrylic on canvas
11" x 8 1/2"
2013

